Hi Don,

Yes, at least one site was found to not have had a proper CofO. I do not have the address at my finger tips. It is a long process but hypothetically they will need to have input from Transportation who will never permit a car rental facility without proper parking accommodation. They get to try to remedy it but I don't see how it will be possible and they are given quite some time to come into compliance.. It is a wait and see as it goes through the process at this stage.

Kind regards,

Has there been any progress on the van parking issue. It seemed like we were gaining some traction last time we spoke about it.

Thanks, Fred.
